Edward Larson, piano – Kathleen McNerney, oboe

WAKING AND SLEEPING

Dream With Me Leonard Bernstein
from "Peter Pan"

Dream with me tonight and every night; and though we may be far apart, keep me in your heart and dream with me.

Quant j'ai ouy le tabourin Claude Debussy/
from "Trois Chansons" Charles d'Orléans
Deborah Perkins, soprano

When I heard the drum sounding to summon us to gather May blossoms, in my bed I was not bothered, nor did I lift my head from the pillow. I said, "it is too early, I will go back to sleep for a bit."

He, Watching Over Israel Felix Mendelssohn
from "Elijah"

He, watching over Israel, slumbers not, nor sleeps…

Cantata BWV 140: Wachet auf! J. S. Bach
I. Chorus – IV. Chorale – VII. Chorale

"Wake up," a voice from heaven calls us…

When the Red, Red Robin Harry Woods
Kate Sanborn, Martha Nielsen, Susan Parks, trio

Wake up, you sleepy head, get up, get out of bed…

- INTERMISSION -

EATING AND DRINKING

The Anvil Chorus Giuseppe Verdi/
from "Il Trovatore" Salvatore Cammarano

Pour me a tankard, 'tis wine alone that makes my courage rise…

Bread and Roses Caroline Kohlsaat/
James Oppenheim

Hearts starve as well as bodies: give us bread, but give us roses!

Panis angelicus César Franck

Bread of Angels, become the bread of men!
Doris Langlais, soprano

Java Jive Ben Oakland & Milton Drake

I love coffee, I love tea, I love the Java Jive and it loves me!

Hiawatha's Wedding Feast Samuel Coleridge-Taylor/
(excerpts) Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

(2007 marks the 200th anniversary of Longfellow's birth.)

Thus the wedding banquet ended, and the guests departed, leaving Hiawatha happy with the night and Minnehaha.

Hungarian Goulash #5 Johannes Brahms/
Allan Sherman

If you like Hungarian food, they have a goulash which is very good…
